This course prepares attendees for the assignment of Field Training Officer. This class is designed for agencies who utilize the San Jose Model (SJM) for field training. Upon class completion, attendees will be trained to evaluate student officer performance, rate the performance utilizing the Standardized Evaluation Guidelines (SEGs), and properly document the observed performance, with an emphasis on Training Towards Success.

THIS CLASS INCLUDES:

- Instructor Development
- Adult Learning Methodologies
- Coach-Pupil Method of Instruction
- Lesson Planning
- Evaluation Rules
- Formula for Documentation
- How to Deal with the Incapable Students
- Extensions and Not Responding to Training Issues
- The Ethical Considerations of Field Training Programs
- Daily Observation Reports (DOR) based on a student's performance, utilizing the SEGs
- Watching videos of a student officer performing various tasks and evaluating performance according to SEGs

Our curriculum is recognized by AZPOST and by Alaska Police Standards Council

Cost: $497.00 per student, which includes training materials.
